

Session 5

Introduction to screening

Screening means to examine or check a person for a disease or diseases. For coronary heart disease, the measurements you can check that affect your risk are:

