

Session 11

Preventing diabetes

Diabetes significantly increases the risk of coronary heart disease and can lead to other serious health problems.

A background graphic consisting of multiple orange silhouettes of human figures of various sizes, arranged in a grid-like pattern, representing a diverse population.

It is estimated that by 2025, about
THREE MILLION people will have been diagnosed with diabetes
in the UK